

RSVP Transatlantic Crossing Queen Mary 2 – May 29-June 4, 2007
Daily Schedule

May 16

**May be subject to changes

Tuesday, May 29, New York

Welcome Aboard!

Federal regulations require that all checked baggage pass through additional screening on shore prior to being loaded on the ship. This may result in a slight delay of your baggage delivery to your stateroom. Luggage will be delivered to you cabin as soon as possible. If you have not received it by 8:00pm, please contact the Purser's Office on Deck 2.

The RSVP Hospitality Desk is located at the Purser's Office in the Grand Lobby. We are happy to assist you with any questions or problems that may arise throughout the cruise. The RSVP Hospitality Desk hours are 1pm - 5pm today. The Purser's Office handles inquiries concerning your cabin.

The RSVP Sales Desk on Deck 2 is happy to assist you with future RSVP Vacations and is open 1pm – 5pm today.

Please do not flush condoms down your toilet. The plumbing on the ship is necessarily complicated and condoms can create clogs which prevent all the cabins around you from using the toilet until the clog is located and dissolved. Please note technicians are able to determine which cabin created the clog.
